If you can't take this summer heat, a tasty frozen concoction is what the (foodie) doctor orders! My biggest question is why did it take so long for the popular self-serve frozen yogurt concept to open in Chapel Hill? But fret no more, Orange Leaf Self Serve Frozen Yogurt café is here...and by the looks of foot traffic, here to stay!

Please help in maintaining our pool umbrellas and providing a safe environment at the pool. The umbrellas, especially the three new large, free standing ones at the pool, should always be collapsed when you leave them. The umbrellas should never be up in strong windy conditions. If you see an umbrella up when it should not be, please close it. The new Federal law for

The Grounds Committee has decided to hold bi-monthly meetings during the summer months since most landscaping projects have been postponed until fall due to the heat. Our next meeting is scheduled for June 10th at 7pm at Mt. Carmel Baptist Church. Grounds would like to ask residents: Please be sure that your trees and shrubs close to the sidewalks are trimmed back to provide walkers a clear path. Paint and make repairs to your mailbox. They are all getting older and many

If you have become accustomed to the sweeter versions of frozen yogurts past, you may find the flavors a bit sour...but isn't that what "yogurt" is (imagine that!)? The tart pomegranate side by side with a serving of luscious mango took me to the shores of South America being spoon fed by a cabana boy. I will not be able to say it enough, "ORANGE LEAF IS DIVINE!" The store is a
